Sir,

APPLICATION FOR EMPLOYMENT AS LECTURER I

I humbly apply for the position of Lecturer I in the Department of Political Science and Mass Communication of your University. This application followed my strong drive to contribute immensely to teaching and research. As someone who has taught Research Method and Data Analysis for five years, I have no doubt that I could play a key role in improving your university research traditions. Apart from my teaching experience, I currently consult and analyse data for UNICEF Enugu, Field Office. I was also the best graduating student during my Master Degree Programme (2012/2013 session) and Doctorate Degree (2016/2017 session) in the Department of Mass Communication, University of Nigeria, Nsukka.

I hold a Bachelor of Science Degree (Second Class Upper Division), a Master of Arts Degree and a Doctorate Degree (Ph.D) in Mass Communication from Enugu State University of Science and Technology, Enugu and University of Nigeria, Nsukka respectively. I equally have over twenty local and international journal articles to my credit and have taught in the university for over five years.

My curriculum vitae is hereby attached for your scrutiny as it encapsulates my strengths in media and communication studies. Although curriculum vitae may not give a complete picture of my expertise, my referees will be much willing to furnish you with other relevant information you may wish to get in the consideration of my request. As I await your consideration, have assurances of my dedication to duty.

Yours faithfully,

Ekwe, Okwudiri, Ph.D
